7v7 Rules

Revised 2025

FOULS AND MISCONDUCT

- No off-sides
- No Slide tackling.
- All fouls will result in an indirect free kick; there are no direct penalty kicks. All free kicks, with the exception of kickoffs and penalty kicks, may be taken in any direction. Free kicks are taken from the spot of the foul.
- While all fouls will result in an indirect kick, reckless or dangerous play may result in ejection of the offending player, at the referee's discretion.
- Players opposing the kicker during a free kick shall be at least 5 yards from the ball until it is kicked, unless they are standing on their own goal line between the goal posts. If the free kick is awarded to the defending team in its penalty area, players opposing the kicker shall be outside the penalty area and at least 5 yards from the ball and must remain there until the ball clears the penalty area.
- Any indirect free kick awarded to the attacking team within its opponents' penalty area shall be taken from the part of the penalty area line which runs parallel to the goal line at the point to where the offense was committed.

Ball In and Out of Play

- Ball over the sideline results in a throw in.
- Ball over the end line results in a goal kick or a corner kick.
- The ball must be completely over the line to be considered out of play.

REGISTERED PLAYERS

- Only players who have registered with Georgia Soccer AND with GAWSA for the relevant 7 v 7 season of play are eligible to play in GAWSA 7 v 7 matches. Any captain that allows a player who is not eligible to play to participate in a GAWSA sponsored match is subject to the penalties set forth in the GAWSA policies and procedures.
- If a captain of an opposing team believes that an unregistered player is participating, the captain may request that the referee verify each player's eligibility by confirming the player's registration for the playing season on the GAWSA website's team roster. Each captain should maintain a copy of their current roster, but the captain may produce their current roster in electronic format by accessing the GAWSA website. In the event that any player on the GAWSA website does not have a picture uploaded to the registration/team roster, that player may be required by the referee to produce a driver's license or other form of picture identification.
- Each player must be able to show a GAWSA/GASA player pass upon request
